

Steve Reischman has joined Partners Environmental as a Certified Industrial Hygienist and Certified Safety Professional. Mr. Reischman previously worked at American Analytical in Akron. Partners Environmental is a full service consulting practice specializing in Brownfields, radiological waste, regulatory compliance and negotiations, due diligence, underground storage tanks, expert testimony, industrial hygiene management, health & safety compliance, and asbestos, mold, and lead-based paint management.