

Mary S. Busby, Esq., has joined our firm as Director of Due Diligence Services. Mary brings over 20 years of experience in the legal, insurance and environmental industry to our firm. Mary is a member of the Ohio Bar and worked extensively in the environmental insurance industry, both as an underwriter with AIG and as a broker with Arthur Gallagher. In her new role, Mary will direct the completion of Phase I Environmental Site Assessments and related Due Diligence Services. Partners currently provides such services for Clients throughout the United States.